Anti-Racist Pedagogy Across the Curriculum (ARPAC) Workshop

May 15 - 23, 2013
Open to teaching faculty from all higher education institutions

The 5th annual Anti-Racist Pedagogy Across the Curriculum Workshop will take place at St. Cloud State University.

The workshop takes place over two weeks:

Week I  May 15 - 17, 2013
Glacier North, Atwood Memorial Center

Week II May 20 - 23, 2013
Room 219, 51 Building

This award-winning workshop will provide intensive training for faculty on how to incorporate anti-racist pedagogy into courses across disciplines, across campus.

This two-week training will be led by nationally recognized presenters with follow-up meetings in the 2013-2014 academic year. Participants will develop curriculum modifications for existing or new courses with implementation in future semesters.

Organized by the Multicultural Resource Center (MRC) and the Community Anti-Racism Education Initiative (CARE) at SCSU

For specific information on Registration, and details on the Schedule and workshop content, please visit our web page at:
http://www.stcloudstate.edu/care/arpacworkshop.asp

For more information contact:
Kyoko Kishimoto, Interim Director, MRC, 320-308-6476, kkishimoto@stcloudstate.edu

Sponsored by St. Cloud State University and MnSCU

St. Cloud State University values diversity of all kinds, including but not limited to race, religion and ethnicity (full statement at http://scsu.mn/ONiKKT). TTY: 1-800-627-3529 St. Cloud State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity educator and employer. This material can be made available in an alternative format. Contact the department/agency listed above.